southern expressway duplication
April – May 2014
construction activities

Equipment: Road trucks and trailers, rock breaker, water carts, excavators, Vermeer Trencher and cranes, crushing plant, asphalt paving fleet.

Expect: some noise (including reverse beepers), dust, road trucks on public roads, speed and lane restrictions at Marion Road Interchange, and speed changes on expressway.

*Extended interpeak closure of the expressway on weekdays between 9:30am and 3:30pm until late April 2014

*Night closures of the expressway between 7:00pm and 6:00am until May 2014 for road resurfacing works

northern region (Bedford Park to Lander Road)
- Marion Road Interchange works continue. Construction of the central bridge pier is complete, bridge beams have been installed and the concrete bridge deck has been poured. All works are expected to be complete by May 2014
- Sturt River Bridge works continue along with erosion control works in the river
- Road resurfacing works on existing expressway and ramps
- Pavement and asphalt works on new carriageway
- Ongoing installation of permanent barriers on the expressway
- Noise barrier construction
- Installation of stormwater drainage and Intelligent Transport Systems (ITS) conduits
- Temporary closure of the truck arrestor bed located on the expressway to enable construction of the new carriageway and a new arrestor bed in this location. The new arrestor bed will be operational in mid 2014.
- Ongoing excavation of Marion Road off ramp and placement of fill between Marion Road and Main South Road

Equipment: Road trucks and trailers, rock breaker, water carts, excavators, Vermeer Trencher and cranes, crushing plant, asphalt paving fleet.

Expect: some noise (including reverse beepers), dust, road trucks on public roads, speed and lane restrictions during piling works at Reynella Interchange, some noise from rock breaker and reverse beepers, dust, road trucks on public roads, speed changes on expressway, traffic restrictions on Sherriffs Road during interchange works

*Extended interpeak closure of the expressway on weekdays between 9:30am and 3:30pm until late April 2014

*Night closures of the expressway between 7:00pm and 6:00am until May 2014 for road resurfacing works

central region (Lander Road to Sherriffs Road)
- Sherriffs Road Interchange works are nearing completion with bridge beams and parapets in place and the concrete deck poured. All works are expected to be complete by April 2014
- Sugarbush pedestrian bridge works continue. Construction of the central pier and bridge abutment has commenced and the new bridge span and canopy have been constructed off site in readiness for installation. Scheduled to reopen in late May 2014
- Construction of the on-ramp flyover at the Reynella Interchange continues with the last span of bridge beams to be installed and concrete decks to be poured
- Intersection upgrade works continue at Panalatinga Road/Kenihans Road/Old South Road
- Smith Creek bridge works are nearing completion with bridge beams and parapets in place and the concrete deck poured. All works are expected to be complete by April 2014
- Installation of stormwater drainage and ITS conduits at Young Street
- Installation of permanent barriers on the expressway
- Noise barrier construction
- Pavement and asphalt works on new carriageway
- Road resurfacing works on existing expressway and ramps

Equipment: Road trucks and trailers, off-highway trucks, moxie trucks, water carts, rock breaker, piling and drilling rigs, Vermeer Trencher and cranes, asphalt paving fleet.

Expect: Changes to traffic conditions on Beach Road at Expressway speed and lane restriction changes during piling works at Reynella Interchange, some noise from rock breaker and reverse beepers, dust, road trucks on public roads, speed changes on expressway, noise (including reverse beepers) and dust, road trucks on public roads, sp

*Extended interpeak closure of the expressway on weekdays between 9:30am and 3:30pm until late April 2014

*Night closures of the expressway between 7:00pm and 6:00am until May 2014 for road resurfacing works

southern region (Sherriffs Road to Old Noarlunga)
- Christie Creek bridge works are nearing completion with bridge beams and parapets in place and the concrete deck poured. All works are expected to be complete and the pedestrian underpass re-opened by April 2014
- Beach Road Interchange and widening works continue with the eastern on/off ramps open and the new signalised intersection activated. The western on/off ramps are under construction and widening works continue on the south western side of the interchange.
- Honeyopot Bridge works continue with construction of the western bridge abutment and new central bridge pier underway, along with bridge beam installation. Scheduled to reopen in early May 2014
- Road resurfacing works on existing expressway and ramps
- Pavement and asphalt works on new carriageway
- Installation of permanent barriers on the expressway
- Concrete works behind permanent barriers
- Noise barrier construction
- Installation of stormwater drainage and ITS conduits at Beach Road

Equipment: road trucks and trailers, road profiler, excavators, water carts, cranes, truck and jinker, asphalt paver

Expect: some noise (including reverse beepers), dust, road trucks on public roads, speed and lane restrictions on expressway, noise (including reverse beepers) and dust, road trucks on public roads

*Extended interpeak closure of the expressway on weekdays between 9:30am and 3:30pm until late April 2014

*Night closures of the expressway between 7:00pm and 6:00am until May 2014 for road resurfacing works