Hon David Speirs MP
Leader of the Opposition
Parliament House
ADELAIDE SA 5000
leaderoftheopposition@parliament.sa.gov.au

Dear Mr Speirs

NOTICE OF DETERMINATION - REQUEST FOR ACCESS TO DOCUMENTS UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 1991

I refer to your application made under the Freedom of Information Act 1991 (the FOI Act) received by this agency on 13 January 2023.

You have requested access to the following:

For the period 20 March 2022 to 13 January 2023, all documents, including but not limited to emails, text messages, and any other form of correspondence since the election pertaining to any potential or actual conflict of interest.

The 30-day period for processing your application has now passed. A determination was due on 13 February 2023. This means that this agency is deemed by section 19(2)(b) of the Act to have refused access to the documents requested. However, the agency has continued to process your application outside this timeframe.

This agency has attempted to clarify the scope with your office and no response has been received. This agency has therefore understood the scope of your application to pertain to the Minister for Local Government, Minister for Regional Roads and Minister for Veterans Affairs, the Hon Geoff Brock MP.

There are two (2) documents that fall within the scope of your application and are those listed in the attached document schedule.

I have determined to partially release Document 1 under section 20(1)(a), and clause 6(1) of Schedule 1 of the Act which states:

20—Refusal of access

- (1) An agency may refuse access to a document—
(a) if it is an exempt document;...

6—Documents affecting personal affairs

- (1) A document is an exempt document if it contains matter the disclosure of which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of information concerning the personal affairs of any person (living or dead).

Clause 6(1)

Documents 1 contains information that this agency considers to be the personal affairs of an individual, the release of which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of their personal affairs. I therefore determine the information to be exempt from disclosure under clause 6(1) of Schedule 1 of the Act.

I have determined to refuse access to Document 2 under section 20(1)(b) of the Act which states:

20—Refusal of access

- (1) An agency may refuse access to a document—
(b) if it is a document that is available for inspection at that or some other agency (whether as part of a public register or otherwise) in accordance with Part 2, or in accordance with a legislative instrument other than this Act, whether or not inspection of the document is subject to a fee or charge;..

Section 20(1)(b)

Document 2 have been refused access under Section 20(1)(b) of the Act as these documents are publicly available for inspection on the website of the Department of the Premier and Cabinet. Links to the websites has been provided in the attached document schedule for ease of reference.

If you are unhappy with this determination you are entitled to apply for an internal review in accordance with section 29 of the FOI Act. To make an internal review application, you can write a letter or send the attached form entitled Application for Review of Determination to the Principal Officer of this agency, the Minister for Local Government, Minister for Regional Roads and Minister for Veterans Affairs, the Hon Geoff Brock MP.

In accordance with the requirements of Premier and Cabinet Circular PC045, if you are given access to documents as a result of this FOI application, details of your FOI application, and the documents to which you are given access, may be published in the agency's disclosure log. Any private information will be removed. A copy of PC045 can be found at www.dpc.sa.gov.au/resources-and-publications/premier-and-cabinet-circulars. FOI FACT SHEET

Your Rights to Review and Appeal

South Australian Freedom of Information Act 1991

Please read the information in this fact sheet before completing the attached application form

INTERNAL REVIEW

If you are unhappy with a determination made by an agency (includes South Australian State Government Agency, Local Government Council or University) under the Freedom of Information Act 1991 (FOI Act) in relation to:

- a freedom of information (FOI) application for access to a document, or
- an FOI application for amendment to your personal records in most cases, you are entitled to apply for an Internal Review of that determination.

Request an Internal Review

An Internal Review must be lodged within 30 calendar days of you receiving advice of a determination that you are unhappy with.

Applications must be made in writing in accordance with Section 29 or Section 38 of the FOI Act or using the attached FOI Application Form for Internal Review of a Determination (Internal Review Form).

An Internal Review application must be made to the Principal Officer of the agency that made the determination you are seeking to have reviewed.

How much does an Internal Review cost?

There is an application fee of $39.00 that must be paid when you lodge your Internal Review application if your review request is for access to documents.

There is no application fee for an Internal Review of an FOI application for amendment to your personal records.

Agencies generally accept payment by cash, money order or cheque. If you would like to pay by credit card you will need to ask the agency if they are able to accept credit card payments.

If, as a result of an Internal Review an agency changes or reverses a determination so that access to a document is, or will be, given, the agency will refund the Internal Review application fee paid by the applicant, where applicable.

What if I have a concession card or can't afford to pay?

If you are the holder of a current concession card or if you can satisfy the agency that the payment of the application fee would cause financial hardship, the agency must waive or remit (reduce or refund) it.

If you are a concession cardholder you will need to provide evidence e.g. attach a copy of your concession card when you make the application. Alternatively, you will need to give written reasons as to why the payment of a fee would cause you financial hardship.

How long does an Internal Review take?

You will be advised of the outcome of your Internal Review application within 14 calendar days of it being received by the agency.

If the agency does not deal with your Internal Review application within 14 calendar days (or you remain unhappy with the outcome of the Internal Review) you are entitled to an External Review by the Ombudsman SA. Alternatively, you may apply for a review by the South Australian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (SACAT). See the External Review section below.

When can't I apply for an Internal Review?

If the original application determination was made by the Principal Officer of an agency rather than another accredited FOI Officer within the agency, you cannot apply for an Internal Review. However, you can apply for an External Review by the Ombudsman SA or apply for a review by SACAT.

EXTERNAL REVIEW

After an Internal Review has been completed, or where you are unable to apply for an Internal Review, and you are unhappy with the determination, you have the right to apply for an External Review. All applications for External Review should be made to the Ombudsman SA.

How long will an External Review take and how much will it cost?

If you wish to make an application for an External Review you must do so within 30 calendar days after being notified of the determination. However, the Ombudsman SA can extend this time limit at their discretion. There is no fee or charge for External Reviews undertaken by the Ombudsman.

Contact Details:
Ombudsman SA Phone: 8226 8699 Toll Free: 1800 182 150 (outside metro SA) Email: ombudsman@ombudsman.sa.gov.au

REVIEW BY SACAT

You have a right to apply for a review by SACAT if you are unhappy with:

- a determination not subject to Internal Review
- an Internal Review determination, or
- the outcome of a review by the Ombudsman SA.

You must exercise your right of review with SACAT within 30 calendar days after being advised of the above types of determinations or the results of a review.

Any costs will be determined by SACAT, where applicable.

For more information contact SACAT.

Subject: Register of Interests Annual Returns for the Cabinet Register

OFFICIAL: Sensitive

Good afternoon

Under the Ministerial Code of Conduct, Cabinet Office maintains a register of the declarations of interest made by Ministers. It includes details of the private interests of all Ministers disclosed to Parliament pursuant to the Members of Parliament (Register of Interests) Act 1983 and any other potentially conflicting private interests disclosed by Ministers.

Copies of these annual returns are stored in the Cabinet Register which is confidentially maintained by Cabinet Business and Systems staff.

As Ministers lodge their annual returns with Parliament, a signed copy also needs to be provided to me (via return email) to be stored in the Cabinet Register.

It would be appreciated if you could forward a copy of your Minister's annual return by close of business on Friday, 24 September 2022.

If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Regards
